Elected at Louisville After Funeral of H. C. Pulliam-No Games in American and National Leagues in Respect to Dead President-Other Sports

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 2—About an hour after Harry C. Pulliam, late president of the National League of Baseball clubs, was buried today in Cave Hill cemetery, John Heydler of Clacinnati, secretary of the league at a special meeting of the directors. Though there was no set eulowy prepared by the committee each director spoke of Mr. Pulliam as the "squarest man in baseball," and one who had wielded an influence for the better over the national game.

Except for Mr. Dreyfus, who remained with relatives in Louisville over night, all the baseball men who came to attend the funeral and the business meeting went home.

Bat and Ball Laid Aside. New York, Aug. 2.—Bat and ball were laid aside by thirty professional baseball clubs today out of respect to the memory of Harry C. spite of the irregular and at times re-rather than disturbed sentiment. There was palpably going on a shifting of speculative holdings from old to new quarters of the market. Houses which have been conspicuous in the operations in stocks which have led the market recently were concentrated buyers today of stocks which came to the front in the day's upward movement. While there was no selling openly by the same interests in the stocks which they had been accumulating in a demonstrative, way before it was suspected that the resources for the new buying serious impairment of condition indi-cated for the month of July, was ac-cepted with languid interest. The per-cepted with languld interest. The per-centage of the condition figures is the lowest of record for this season of the year and the curtallment in the total crop thus foreshadowed must make a heavy inroad upon the aggregate out-turn for the year of the country's agri-cultural wealth. The more hopeful promise of the grain crops was pre-ferred for contemplation and the sharp decline in the condition of corn re-ported by the Oklahoma authorities and the reports of damage from black rust in the northwest did not affect confi-quility. Money and exchange condi-tions were not materially changed. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $5,242,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

EDDIE COLLINS LEADS. Athletics' Star Batter Heads the Ma-jor Leagues—Hyatt Has High Record Thus Far.

Eddie Cellins of the Philadelphia Athletics is the king-pin hitter in the major leagues, the former college player holding a brailiant record of .351 through the games played on July 29. His nearest rival is Hans Wagner of the Pittsburg Pirates, who is batting at a .345 clip.

Ty Cobb is the second best sticker in the American league, the Detroit outfielder having a .332. Crawford of the same team is banging the ball for .321, and Killifer, a utility man, is hammering away for .350.

Hoffman of the St. Louis Browns has .222 to his credit. Harry Lord of the Boston Red Sox is leading the Hub team with .394, while Amby McConnell seems unable to get better than .209.

tban .209,
Hyatt, Pittsburg's utility player, has boosted his mark to .351, while Clarke of the same club is pounding the ball for .311. Jacklitsch, who caught for Providence a few seasons ago, is carrying a mark of .333 for the Philadetphia. Nationals. Mitchell of Cincinnati is rated at .323.

The records of the leading stickers in each league together with the averages of the pitchers follow:

Ty Kicked at Decision But Is Silenced by Ripping Sarcasm.

Tim Hurst, the American league umpire, says "cocky youngsters" from the minor leagues give the umpires more trouble than the battle scarred regulars. "You can't win an argument by fining or benching them. I find it easier to subdue them with sarcasm. Mr., 390 hitter from the bushes is accustomed to getting all the shades at home; he had all the umps in the Tallgrass league buffaloed; the pitchers had to pitch the ball for him. Curving it over the corners didn't count. So Mr., 300 hitter believes a blue streak at the umpire when he hits the big league and realizes that curving em over the corners counts. We have to take a fail out of these kids before they become good.

"The first year Ty Cobb came up from Augusta, Ga., he gave me a lot of trouble. Ty was out for a fat batting average and he didn't like to have strikes called on him. Ed Walsh slipped one over on him one day; I called it a strike wand try broke loose with a fearful roar. While he was cracking with Billy Sullivan, who was carching search and trouble with Matty McIntyre and Eddie Siever, and when Sullivan, who was carching who was wise to my game, fell in line was ready for the gain and trouble with Matty McIntyre and Eddie Siever, and when Sullivan, who was carching search was wise to my game, fell in line was ready for the gain and trouble with Matty McIntyre and Eddie Siever, and when Sullivan, who was carching sign cracker has disorganized the Detroit team, said, I to Sullivan, Cobb had had trouble with Matty McIntyre and Eddie Siever, and when Sullivan, who was cracking sign cracker has disorganized the Detroit team, said, I to Sullivan, who was cracking sign cracker has disorganized the Detroit team, said, I to Sullivan, who was cracking sign cracker has disorganized the Detroit team, said, I to Sullivan, who was continued the strike I had called on him, marched back to the plate, and, like the immortal Casey, signified that he was ready for the game to go on. The M. & M.'s great attraction, says The Horseman, is the fact that it is for the 2.24 class, and always has been, so that right at the beginning of the season the best green or slow record horses have sufficient inducement to go to their speed limit. This in itself is a most admirable feature. Another point about the stake is that it is the oldest stake of the amount whose conditions as to class have never been changed. It has amply fulfilled the objects for which it was created, and in many respects can well claim to be the great trotting stake of the year.

Philadelphia and Boston will be the contenders for the American league pennant in 1910 and 1911, according to Manager Lake of Boston.
